

Christian Women's October 8, 2019 meeting

Rosary was said.

OLD BUSINESS

The report at care centers was given by Marcy G. The next bingo will be in Feb. at Riverside. Sue Smeija volunteered to help.

Becky V. reported that the rotation of cleaners at the parish house has gone well.

Becky added that volunteers for servers, lectors, EM, and ushers is still needed. She suggested that the servers needing service hours should ask if they could use their serving time.

NEW BUSINESS

Our Pro-life bingo is on Nov. 3 and this year misses hunting season. Connie Anderson and Cec Krystosek's groups will serve lunch this year. Joan will speak with Neil Z. regarding the youth group selling water. There are water bottles in sacristy from Platte River Days that could be sold. Joan will order 20 10-12 lb turkeys and the one 20# turkey for blackout prize. Carol Mick will call bingo. Also, need a deck of cards for ties. Joan said she will speak with DQ owner regarding treats for youths attending. If mugs are needed for prizes there might be some at the rectory. Lunch will be sandwiches, chips and pickles, milk, juice or coffee. Bars will be provided by servers. Plates, napkins and beverage cups need to be purchased. Joan will get notices in bulletin and put notice on City Halls flashing sign for advertising. Volunteers to set-up should be at church at 11:30.

New officers are due to be chosen. Becky suggested putting a notice in the bulletin. New officers need to be chosen by Jan.1.

A deanery meeting will be this Saturday in Lastrup. It will start with rosary at 8am. Pat Kasella gave a report from the Diocesan Council. Next June 19 and 20, there will be a combined three state meeting in St. Augusta. In 2021 the national conference will be held in Mpls.

Cheryl Klisch volunteered to host the senior baccalaureate social. There were 13 confirmed to give an estimate on how many to plan for. Bars and beverages will be served.

We will have the church cleaning with our March meeting.

Kim Zimmerman sent a text that a "young mom's group" is starting this Friday at 9:30. For info anyone may call Kim 320-247-2293.

Marcy said that we still need walkers and teachers for CCD.

Prayer partners were chosen and meeting was adjourned.

Lunch was delicious ice cream sundaes.
