Message from Grand Knight, Greg Schaubhut

I would like to plan our next meeting to be held at an outdoor site so we can have distancing, and all feel comfortable doing so. I would like to hold the meeting at the Memorial Park in the gazebo. I have contacted the city and the area is first come first serve so we will need to be understanding and patient.

Vivat Jesus Fraternally yours, Greg Schaubhut GK" If you did not receive this message via email your email address may not be registered and we can help with that. Send your current email address to either myself or Tommy.

I have listed the slate of officers for this fraternal year on the second page. For the most part it is the same as last year. There are a couple of open positions if someone would like to volunteer. It would be greatly appreciated. I would like to thank those who responded and thank those for their support this last year. Some challenging events to say the least. Please help when possible this next year so we can better grow in our faith and expand our reach as Knights of Columbus.

Message from Chaplin Fr. Virnig - Last week we celebrated Independence Day. But it doesn't seem like we are free. With the Corona Virus, we seem to be prisoners. We can't gather to worship God in church, enjoy sports activities or other social activities. We have to wear masks and keep six feet distances. Church picnics, fairs and ball games are cancelled.

Because our bodies are restricted, doesn't mean that our spirit is restricted. We have phones and other communication equipment so we can keep in contact with each other, share ideas but not hugs. Spiritually we can take more time for prayer and meditation. We can do more reading: spiritual or otherwise. We can enjoy nature walks and time to do things with our families in our homes. Like the early settlers in our country, who often didn't see their neighbors for weeks or months at a time. They often read from the Bible. We can read from the Bible, reading a chapter from a gospel and talking about it's meaning, or play card games or pray the rosary together. We should not be arguing or fighting. Let us make it a time of peace. There is too much violence and shooting taking place. Please put away your guns and do something good for all you meet.

*Brother Knights, whatever happens, let's use our times for peace with one another. Make it a time of joy and happiness to everyone we meet because we see Jesus in them. May God bless you. Father Virnig
